There are a lot of dedicated followers of Baba Saheb who kept the caravan moving forward that was initially started by Baba Saheb. Saheb Shri Kanshi Ram Ji was one of them.

On the other side, there were those who used Baba Saheb's name to earn their living and built their personal assets. They collected money from the public under Baba Saheb's name and with that money they built assets under their personal names. Some even went a step further to use Baba Saheb's name and mission to have their families settle in India and in abroad.

However, there were those who lost everything to keep up the promise to lead and follow Baba Saheb's caravan and on the top of that list was Late Saheb Kanshi Ram. Just like Baba Saheb, he did not own any assets of his own. Saheb Shri Kanshi Ram Ji spent every penny collected from the public on his movement for public. He delivered all his responsibilities either those were social, political or religious. Socially he was directly involved with his own people; for political triumph he formed his own national party named Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP). Madame' Mayawati is a successful politician due to him. There is no stopping of dreams given by him and Present Chief Minister of the largest state of India: Madame' Mayawati is now dreaming about being the next Prime Minister of India. And for religion, he declared to return to Buddhism on fiftieth anniversary of Baba Saheb's return to Buddhism.

Saheb Shri Kanshi Ram Ji could not fulfill his promise to return to Buddhism with his millions of followers, as all know he left this world just six days before he could deliver his promise. Now it becomes the responsibilities of all the followers and admirers of Baba Saheb and Saheb Shri Kanshi Ram Ji to fulfill his promise by doing what he wanted to do and not only celebrate his special days without following up on any of his missions. One should consider this a real tribute to him on his birth anniversary.
